

One Year, advance $1.00
Six Months, advance .60
Three Months, advance .30
Single Copies, 10 cents
Business copies mailed free on application
Advertisements by contract, price on demand. Advertisements by the line, price on demand. Advertisements by the line, price on demand.

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

One square, first insertion, 10 cents
Each subsequent insertion, 5 cents
Special rates for special rates
Special rates for special rates
Special rates for special rates
Special rates for special rates

THE BEE, Lexington, Ky.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1903.

WITHIN two weeks President Cleveland will have a new cabinet, but who will compose it no one really knows.

There are three or four appointments which are certain, but the cabinet of 1903 will probably be as much of a surprise as that of 1893.

His cabinet will be known when the names go into the Senate. Grant reorganized his last again and again.

It is an interesting thing to see in the list of names which were confirmed. James A. Garfield made some changes after he left Mentor, and there were a number of statesmen who had the right to expect to be in President Lincoln's cabinet who were left out.

President Harrison did not decide as to three of the members of his cabinet until he was on his way to his inauguration, and President Cleveland's last official name was a disappointment to some of his party at the time its members were selected.

The Buckner-Brown controversy which has enlivened things up at our State Capital, in the result of a matter of deep interest to the whole State. If anything is rotten in connection with the convict lease question, let that rottenness be shown. The conviction of the people is aroused, and nothing short of a thorough investigation will satisfy them.

The governor certainly has not acted in undue haste. If he has he should tread cautiously. Ex-Gov. Buckner's reply is not couched in the most elegant. With many, and especially with Gov. Brown's strong adherents, the document suggests this: "If the shoe fits, wear it." The reply may or may not have been called for, but it is surely a matter of bad taste on the part of our ex-governor. The public anxiously await the coming of a thorough investigation, and as the matter now stands, waiting will not be long.

The Law and Order League of Memphis, Tenn., is giving a tangible proof of what the citizens of a city can do when they are united in purpose and determined to effect reforms. This league is representative of the culture, wealth and honesty of the city. The first victory achieved has been the disbarment of Ralph Davis, the henchman of the Judge of Criminal Court, as an attorney.

The lawyer is Speaker of the Tennessee House of Representatives, and of course, that body, consistently with its duty and dignity, must oust Davis from the chair. The league is now in hot chase after the scalp of Judge DuBois, the judge whose methods have been the theme of adverse comment by all the papers published south of the Ohio river.

The plan outlined to have him impeached, or, preferably, to entirely abolish his court, and place the criminal jurisdiction of the county upon an extra Circuit Court, to be created by the same act which dumps DuBois's tribunal into the river. The people of other municipalities wherein unhappily, there may dwell and rule, are to be Bosas and Davis stamp, can not but view with gratification the result of the league's labors. This but illustrates the sovereignty of which we boast so theoretically—that the power to do and undo rests at last with the people. When the people shall the ringsters loose. When men fall to use the ballot, or using it, go like dumb beasts driven to the pen, why wonder that a city is misgoverned? It was a main of one of the greatest political offices of the world. "The way to maximize honesty among your employees is to minimize their opportunities for wrong-doing." Why not make this applicable to public officials? Vigilantly watch them and thus enforce honesty. The people of Memphis are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

WHISTLE POSTS.

Bud Morgan, now at work on the L. & T., made rapid time and friends here a visit last week.

Agent Walker met with a slight accident last week, which caused him to limp for a day or two.

Mack made a good impression on the jury, and showed that he was somewhat a lawyer himself.

Supervisor Sullivan had a special train out last Saturday, distributing material to make repairs along the line.

Water has again interfered with the Ohio Valley transfer, and their trains are once more crossing the bridge.

Conductor Johnson can now boast of one of the best cabooses on the road, since it has recently been refitted on the inside.

Agent Crunk, of Providence, made friends at Kelleys a visit last week, and they think Henry has a matrimonial life in his hand.

A few bright days will enable Supervisors Sullivan and Davis with their crews of men to get the Henderson division in shape.

Attorney W. Gordon of Madisonville has been fighting madly in the interest of the Railroad against the present term of circuit court.

Considerable damage was done last week to a train of coal cars by the train breaking in several parts and the parts running together while in rapid motion.

It is an interesting thing to see in the list of names which were confirmed. James A. Garfield made some changes after he left Mentor, and there were a number of statesmen who had the right to expect to be in President Lincoln's cabinet who were left out.

President Harrison did not decide as to three of the members of his cabinet until he was on his way to his inauguration, and President Cleveland's last official name was a disappointment to some of his party at the time its members were selected.

The Buckner-Brown controversy which has enlivened things up at our State Capital, in the result of a matter of deep interest to the whole State. If anything is rotten in connection with the convict lease question, let that rottenness be shown. The conviction of the people is aroused, and nothing short of a thorough investigation will satisfy them.

The governor certainly has not acted in undue haste. If he has he should tread cautiously. Ex-Gov. Buckner's reply is not couched in the most elegant. With many, and especially with Gov. Brown's strong adherents, the document suggests this: "If the shoe fits, wear it." The reply may or may not have been called for, but it is surely a matter of bad taste on the part of our ex-governor. The public anxiously await the coming of a thorough investigation, and as the matter now stands, waiting will not be long.

The Law and Order League of Memphis, Tenn., is giving a tangible proof of what the citizens of a city can do when they are united in purpose and determined to effect reforms. This league is representative of the culture, wealth and honesty of the city. The first victory achieved has been the disbarment of Ralph Davis, the henchman of the Judge of Criminal Court, as an attorney.

The lawyer is Speaker of the Tennessee House of Representatives, and of course, that body, consistently with its duty and dignity, must oust Davis from the chair. The league is now in hot chase after the scalp of Judge DuBois, the judge whose methods have been the theme of adverse comment by all the papers published south of the Ohio river.

The plan outlined to have him impeached, or, preferably, to entirely abolish his court, and place the criminal jurisdiction of the county upon an extra Circuit Court, to be created by the same act which dumps DuBois's tribunal into the river. The people of other municipalities wherein unhappily, there may dwell and rule, are to be Bosas and Davis stamp, can not but view with gratification the result of the league's labors. This but illustrates the sovereignty of which we boast so theoretically—that the power to do and undo rests at last with the people. When the people shall the ringsters loose. When men fall to use the ballot, or using it, go like dumb beasts driven to the pen, why wonder that a city is misgoverned? It was a main of one of the greatest political offices of the world. "The way to maximize honesty among your employees is to minimize their opportunities for wrong-doing." Why not make this applicable to public officials? Vigilantly watch them and thus enforce honesty. The people of Memphis are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated. They are to be congratulated.

